NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE TO H.R. 2355

OFFERED BY MR. Brown of Ohio

In section 4, add at the end of the proposed new section 2796 the following:

1       “(1) ENSURING CONSUMER CHOICE.—Subsection (b)
2 shall not apply to a health insurance issuer offering health
3 insurance coverage in a secondary State unless—

4               “(1) the issuer also offers health insurance cov-
5 erage that meets the laws of, and is regulated by,
6 that secondary State, and

7               “(2) the issuer attests to the applicable State
8 authority of the secondary State that any premium
9 differential between the offering in the primary 10 State and the offering in the secondary State for the 11 same coverage is attributable only to the actuarial 12 differential between the two offerings.”.
